

The European Kettlebell Championship 2021 was held in Kazan on May 27-30. About 300 athletes from 12 countries came to the competition: Lithuania, Poland, England, Ireland, Czech Republic, Latvia, Estonia, Slovenia, Denmark, Hungary, Serbia and Russia.

The viral situation around the world is still making its own adjustments, but the championship was held at the highest level, high results were achieved, and several records were set.
