

«GS Planet», a new Magazine about Kettlebell Sport, has started. It is published at www.GSPlanet.com for free and you can also preorder its hard copy at <http://www.healthfactoryusastore.com/category-s/1825.htm> or purchase at all official IUKL events in North and South Americas. All profits are donated directly to support the Kettlebell Sport.

The web resource GSPLANET and The Magazine are focused on English speaking kettlebell community. You can find information about world kettlebell sport, official IUKL events schedule and learn about nutrition and training in each issue of our magazine, you can also find the overview of the past and future events and read interesting facts about kettlebell history.

On the 1st of March 2014 the first issue of GS Planet The Magazine was published online and it was also printed in limited quantities. Here is its content:

- Best Athlete of the year 2013 in North America
- IUKL World Championship 2013 in Tyumen, Russia
- Team "Make it happen" at Pittsburgh Championship '14
- USA Events calendar 2014
- Interview with Ksenia Dedukhina
- Training tips
- etc.

Alexander Bodrov, the head editor of GS PLANET The Magazine and American Kettlebell Alliance General Secretary, thanks the VFGS and Valentin Egorov (the head editor of the Russian magazine "Гиревой спорт в России и в мире") for cooperation and shared information.

In 2014, four issues of GS The Planet Magazine will be published. The following issues will include the events schedules of European and Australian kettlebell unions, more tips about training and nutrition, facts and history of Kettlebell Sport and many other things.

Together we'll make the Sport better!